On Friday, I went to France with my wife. We had a great trip. We ate lots of French food, I made some new friends, and we saw the Eiffel Tower. The Eiffel Tower looks like Tokyo tower, but I think Tokyo Tower is a little bigger.

Our hotel was right next to the Eiffel Tower. I really liked the hotels there. The hotels in Paris were really nice, and they weren't as expensive as the hotels in Tokyo.

Next year, we are going to visit Europe again. I'd like to go to Italy, but my wife wants to go somewhere else. Maybe we will go to Germany, or we might go to Belgium because my wife really loves beer.
