Hello, my name is Jenny. I am a student. I live with my friends Tina and Koji. We all have different hobbies, so sometimes it is difficult to decide what to do on the weekend.

Koji, Tina and I like playing games. I like playing board games, for example chess and checkers. I prefer chess to checkers, though. Koji likes board games too, but he prefers playing checkers. He also likes Shogi and Go. He prefers go to shogi, but I prefer playing shogi. Shogi is a very interesting game. Tina doesn't like chess, checkers, shogi or go. Tina likes board games like: Scrabble, Monopoly and Guess who. I like playing Monopoly too, but Kenji doesn't like playing Monopoly because the games are so long.

Tina and Koji enjoy collecting things. Tina loves collecting stamps. She likes American stamps, but she prefers Japanese stamps to American ones. Koji like collecting stamps too, but he prefers to collect British stamps. I don't like collecting American, Japanese, or British stamps. I prefer writing letters!

Koji also collects beer mats. I think he prefers collecting beer mats to collecting stamps because he has about 100 beer mats in his collection, but only 20 or 30 stamps in his stamp book. I like beer too, but I prefer drinking beer to collecting beer mats. Because all three of us like beer we spend a lot of time at the pub.

Tina and I like drawing. Tina likes drawing pictures of her friends and family, but I prefer drawing pictures of nature. I love going to the beach or the forest and drawing the plants and animals there. Koji likes pictures too, but he prefers taking pictures with his camera.

Tina, Koji and I all like making things. Koji likes doing pottery. He enjoys making vases, cups and plates. I think that making cups is fun, but I prefer drinking tea from them to making them. Tina likes doing origami. She often makes paper birds, cats, and other animals. She can make things from clay too, but she prefers to make them from paper. I like making beer. Sometimes I make wine too, but I prefer to make beer. Koji and Tina think that I am crazy. They much prefer drinking beer to making it!
